(b) Provide a brief summary of the corporate governance policy that the board of directors has adopted. Please emphasize the policy/ies relative to the treatment of all shareholders, respect for the rights of minority shareholders and of other stakeholders, disclosure duties, and board responsibilities.

The Board of Directors has adopted the following corporate governance policies:

- The principle of "one share, one vote;" ensuring that all shareholders of the same class are treated equally with respect to voting rights, subscription rights and transfer rights.
- An effective, secure and efficient voting system to protect minority shareholders against actions of controlling shareholders.
- Provide all shareholders with due notice and agenda of the annual general meetings (AGM) and special meetings.
- Allow shareholders to call a special shareholders meeting, submit a proposal for consideration at the AGM or the special meeting, and ensure the attendance of the external auditor and other relevant individuals to answer shareholder questions in such meetings.

- Provide all shareholders with accurate and timely information regarding the number of shares of all classes held by controlling shareholders and their affiliates.
- Have a communications strategy to promote effective communication with shareholders.
- Have a transparent dividend policy.
- Disclose the existence, justification, and details on shareholders agreements, voting trust agreements, confidentiality agreements, and such other agreements that may impact on the control, ownership, and strategic direction of the company.
- Disclose its director and executive compensation policy, as well as names of groups or individuals who hold 5% or more ownership interest in the Company, significant cross-shareholding relationship and cross guarantees, as well as the nature of the Company's other companies if it belongs to a corporate group.
- Disclose annual and quarterly consolidated reports, cash flow statements and special audit revisions.
- Publish and/or deliver to its shareholders in a timely fashion all information and materials relevant to corporate actions that require shareholder approval.
- Disclose in its annual report the principal risks to minority shareholders associated with the identity of the Company's controlling shareholders; the degree of ownership concentration; cross-holdings among company affiliates; and any imbalances between the controlling shareholders' voting power and overall equity position in the company.

(c) How often does the Board review and approve the vision and mission?

The Board reviews and approves the vision and mission annually.

2) Chairman and CEO

(a) Do different persons assume the role of Chairman of the Board of Directors and CEO? If no, describe the checks and balances laid down to ensure that the Board gets the benefit of independent views.

Yes

No

The Board of Directors exercises all corporate powers and conducts the business of the Company. Thus the CEO exercises his roles based on the instructions of the Board of Directors.

Identify the Chair and CEO:

Chairman of the Board	Henry Sy, Jr.
CEO/President	Henry Sy, Jr.

(b) Roles, Accountabilities and Deliverables

Define and clarify the roles, accountabilities and deliverables of the Chairman and CEO.

	Chairman	Chief Executive Officer
Role	Schedule meetings to enable the Board to perform its duties responsibly while not interfering with the flow of the company's operations.	To have direct and active management of the business and operations of the Company, conducting the same according to the orders, resolutions of the Board of Directors and according to his own discretion whenever the same is not expressly limited by such orders, resolutions and instructions.
Accountabilities	Exercise control over quality, quantity and timeliness of the flow of information between Management and the Board. Assist in ensuring compliance with company's guidelines on corporate governance.	To exercise general supervision over all the other officers and employees of the Company; appoint and at his discretion remove or suspend all employees and agents of the Company, prescribe their duties, fix their salaries and wages, and require in certain cases guaranties or bonds to secure the faithful discharge by such employees or agents of their official duties.
Deliverables	Prepare meeting agenda	To execute on behalf of the Company all contracts and agreements which it may enter into and which has been duly approved by the Board of Directors, including deeds of sale and purchases, instruments of mortgage or pledge and other obligations. To submit an annual report of the operations of the Company to the Board of Directors and at such other times as the latter may request and annual report thereof to the stockholders at the annual meetings. To sign the certificates of stock. To represent the Company in all judicial and administrative proceedings affecting its business. To exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as the Board of Directors may from time to time fix or delegate.

- 3) Explain how the board of directors plan for the succession of the CEO/Managing Director/President and the top key management positions?

If the office of the President becomes vacant by death, resignation or otherwise, the Board of Directors by a majority vote may choose a successor who shall hold office for the unexpired term. In case of temporary absence of any officer of the Company or for any other person that the Board of Directors may deem sufficient, the Board of Directors may delegate the powers and duties of such officer to another qualified person.

- 4) Other Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors

Does the company have a policy of ensuring diversity of experience and background of directors in the board? Please explain.

Yes. It is required that the Nomination Committee pre-screens all candidates nominated to become a member of the Board. Nominees must have a practical understanding of the business of the corporation, must be a member of the relevant industry in good standing, or a member in good standing of business or professional organizations. Each nominee is thus required to submit a summary of his or her previous business experience.

Does it ensure that at least one non-executive director has an experience in the sector or industry the company belongs to? Please explain.

Yes. Nominees must have a practical understanding of the business of the corporation, must be a member of the relevant industry in good standing, or a member in good standing of business or professional organizations. Each nominee is thus required to submit a summary of his or her previous business experience.

Define and clarify the roles, accountabilities and deliverables of the Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors:

	Executive	Non-Executive	Independent Director
Role	To make rules and regulations for the conduct of the corporate business, provided that they are not contrary to the articles of incorporation, by-laws or the statutes of the Philippines.	To authorize any officer of the Corporation to enter into any negotiation, contract or agreement with any person, firm or entity negotiation, contract or agreement with any person, firm or entity which it may consider necessary for the best interest of the Corporation.	To exercise independent judgment in making decisions as a member of the Board of Directors. To serve as fiscalizer to ensure that the acts and decisions of the Board of Directors are the various committee are beneficial to the interest of the Company as a whole and not merely for the benefit of any one stockholder or group of stockholders.
Accountabilities	To conduct fair business transactions with the corporation and to ensure that personal interest does not bias Board decisions. The basic principle to be observed is that a director should not use his position to make profit or to acquire benefit or advantage for himself and/or his related interests. He should avoid situations that may compromise his impartiality. If an actual or potential conflict of interest should arise on the part of directors or senior executives, it should be fully disclosed and the concerned director should not participate in the decision making. A director who has a continuing

	conflict of interest of a material nature should consider resigning.
	To devote time and attention necessary to properly discharge his duties and responsibilities. A director should devote sufficient time to familiarize himself with the institution's business. He should be constantly aware of the institution's condition and be knowledgeable enough to contribute meaningfully to the Board's work. He should attend and actively participate in Board and committee meetings, request and review meeting materials, ask questions, and request explanations.
	To act judiciously. Before deciding on any matter brought before the Board of directors, every director should thoroughly evaluate the issues, ask questions and seek clarifications when necessary.
	To exercise independent judgment. A director should view each problem/situation objectively. When a disagreement with others occurs, he should carefully evaluate the situation and state his position. He should not be afraid to take a position even though it might be unpopular. As such, he should support plans and ideas that he thinks are beneficial to the corporation.
	To have a working knowledge of the statutory and regulatory requirements affecting the corporation, including the contents of its articles of incorporation and by-laws, the requirements of the Commission, and where applicable, the requirements of other regulatory agencies. A director should also keep himself informed of industry developments and business trends in order to safeguard the corporation's competitiveness.
	To observe confidentiality. A director should observe the confidentiality of non-public information acquired by reason of his position as director. He should not disclose any information to any other person without the authority of the Board.
	To ensure the continuing soundness, effectiveness and adequacy of the company's control environment.
Deliverables	To set aside the annual profits of the Corporation, if any, such amounts as shall be paid to the stockholders in the form of cash dividends and determine the rate thereof, provided that the Board may, in its discretion, place all the profits earned by the Corporation during any one year on reserve or set the same aside as undivided profits.
	To borrow money for the Corporation by any means whatsoever and for such purpose to create, make and issue mortgages, bonds, deeds of trust and negotiable instruments or securities, secured by mortgage or pledge or property belonging to the Corporation, provided that as hereinafter provided, the proper officer of the company shall have these powers, unless expressly limited by the Board.

Provide the company's definition of "independence" and describe the company's compliance to the definition.

An "Independent Director" means a person who, apart from his fees and shareholdings, is independent of management and free from any business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with his exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his responsibilities as a director and includes, among others, any person who:

- (i) Is not a director or officer or substantial stockholder of SGP or of its related companies or any of its substantial stockholders (other than as an independent director of any of the foregoing);
- (ii) Does not own more than 2% of the shares in SGP and/or its related companies or its substantial stockholders;
- (iii) Is not related to any director, officer or substantial stockholder of SGP, any of its related companies or any of its substantial stockholders. For this purpose, relatives includes spouse, parent, child, brother, sister, and the spouse of such child, brother or sister;
- (iv) Is not acting as a nominee or representative of any director or substantial stockholder of SGP, and/or any of its related companies and/or any of its substantial stockholders;
- (v) Has not been employed in any executive capacity by SGP, any of its related companies and/or by any of its substantial stockholders within the last 2 years;
- (vi) Is not retained, either personally or through his firm or any similar entity as professional adviser by SGP, any of its related companies or any of its substantial stockholders within the last 2 years; or
- (vii) Has not engaged and does not engage in any transaction with SGP and/or with any of its related companies and/or with any of its substantial stockholders, whether by himself or with other persons or through a firm of which he is a partner and/or a company of which he is a director or substantial stockholder, other than transactions which are conducted at arm's length and are immaterial.

Does the company have a term limit of five consecutive years for independent directors? If after two years, the company wishes to bring back an independent director who had served for five years, does it limit the term for no more than four additional years? Please explain.

Independent Directors shall hold office for one (1) year and serve as such until the election and qualifications of their successors. The Company shall adopt rules in compliance with SEC Memorandum Circular No. 9 (December 5, 2011) imposing term limits on independent directors. At present, the Company's Independent Director has served only two (2) consecutive years as Independent Director.

5) Changes in the Board of Directors (Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors)

(a) Resignation/Death/Removal

Indicate any changes in the composition of the Board of Directors that happened during the period:

Company Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

The Company maintains policies and procedures (Code) that applies to all directors, officers, senior management and employees.

The Audit Committee will review any issues under the Code and will report its findings to the Board.

In addition to the Company's Policies and Procedures enumerated in the Audit Committee Charter (which mainly involve risk assessment and management), this Code consists of the following:

- Conflict of Interest Policy
- Conduct of Business and Fair Dealings
- Receipt of Gifts from Third Parties
- Compliance with Laws and Regulations
- Trade Secrets/Information Policy
- Corporate Assets Policy
- Directorship and Employment Policy
- Whistle Blowing/Disciplinary Action
- Conflict Resolution

a) Conflict of Interest Policy

Conflict of interest arises when a Company employee takes actions or has personal interests that may interfere with any objective and effective performance of work for the Company.

All directors, officers, senior management and employees are expected to avoid actual or evident conflict in dealing with customers, suppliers, related and other third parties.

Conflict of interest situations require prior written approval from the Office of the Chairman and President, or the Company's Audit Committee.

b) Conduct of Business and Fair Dealings

All Directors, Officers, Senior Management and Employees of the Company should at all times model appropriate conduct.

It is the Company's policy that all transactions will be accurately reflected in its books and records. Falsification of books and records and the creation or maintenance of any of the record book of accounts are strictly prohibited.

Employees are expected to be honest and informative with the Company's internal and external auditors.

The Company expects all employees at all levels to adhere to its policies and internal controls, as well as to make full, accurate, timely and understandable disclosures in reports and documents that the Company files with the SEC, PSE, BIR and other government offices.

c) Receipt of Gifts from Third Parties

Directors, Officers, senior management, and employees should not accept gifts, meals or entertainment or any favour from customers or suppliers, if doing so, may compromise their ability to make objective business decisions in the best interest of the Company.

d) Compliance with Laws and Regulations

The policy of the Company is to comply with all governmental laws, rules and regulations applicable to the business.

The Company expects compliance with its standards of integrity.

e) Trade Secrets and Information Policy

No director, officer, senior management or employee should use or disclose at any time during or subsequent to employment, without proper authority or mandate, confidential information obtained from any source in the course of the Company's business.

They are obligated to protect the Company's non-public information at all times, including outside of the workplace and working hours and even after employment ends.

All employees are responsible for reporting material information known to them to higher management so that information will be available to senior executives responsible for making disclosure decisions.

f) Corporate Assets Policy

The Company's assets are tangible and intangible ones, including confidential information.

All Company directors, officers, senior management or employees are expected to protect its assets and use them efficiently to advance the interest of the Company.

The Company's assets shall not be used for any personal benefit of anyone other than the Company.

Theft of Company assets may result in termination and criminal prosecution.

The use of Company assets or equipment to support personal interests requires written approval from the Chairman or President.

g) Directorship and Employment Policy

Company Officers may serve as directors of affiliated companies and such service may be part of their normal work assignments.

It is the policy of the Company to restrict the holding by directors and officers in non-affiliated, for profit organizations, and prohibits the acceptance of any directorship that would involve a conflict of interest with, or interfere with, the discharge of their duties to the Company.

Officers may hold directorships in non-affiliated, non-profit organization, unless such directorship would involve a conflict of interest with, or interfere with, the discharge of the officer's or employee's duties to the Company, or obligate the Company to provide support to the non-affiliated, non-profit organization.

All directorships in public companies held by directors of the Company are subject to review and approval by the Board of Directors of the Company.

Directorships in non-affiliated, for profit organizations are subject to review and approval by management of the Company as directed by the Chairman.

Employment related decisions should be based on qualifications, performance, skills and experience.

h)/i) Whistle Blowing/Disciplinary Action

Employees are expected to report promptly to management suspected violations of law, the Company's policies, internal controls, so that management can take appropriate corrective action.

Suspected violations of laws of the Company's policies involving a director, officer or senior management , as well as any concern regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters , should be referred directly to the Audit Committee (see related Audit Committee Charter of the Company).

The Audit Committee will initially review all issues involving the director, officer or senior management, and will then refer all such issues to the Board of Directors of the Company.

Failure to comply with law and the Company's policies and internal controls may result in disciplinary action, such as suspension without pay, reduction of merit increases or termination of employment.

j) Conflict Resolution

The Company encourages employees to voice concerns and make appropriate suggestions regarding the business practices of the Company.

In case of conflict, an employee will discuss matters with his immediate supervisor. If the employee is dissatisfied with the review done by his immediate supervisor, the employee is encouraged to request further review by higher management, with the presence of the supervisor, to resolve the issue.

2) Has the code of ethics or conduct been disseminated to all directors, senior management and employees?

Yes, the responsibility for administering the Code rests with the Board of Directors, with oversight by the Chairman and President, and Audit Committee of the Board of Directors.

3) Discuss how the company implements and monitors compliance with the code of ethics or conduct.

The responsibility for administering the Code rests with the Board of Directors, with oversight by the Chairman and President, and Audit Committee of the Board of Directors.

All new Directors, Officers, Senior Management and employees must sign an acknowledgement form confirming that they have read the Code of Ethics and Business Conduct and agreed to abide by its provisions.

A copy of the Code of Ethics and Business Conduct should always be made available at the offices of the Company's Compliance Officer and Comptroller. The Compliance Officer may give copies thereof to any Directors, Senior Management or employee, who requests for one.

All Directors, Officers, Senior Management and employees will be required to make similar acknowledgments on a periodic basis.

Waivers of any provisions of this Code for officers of the Company must be approved by the Board of Directors or its designated committee and will be disclosed promptly to the extent required by law.

4) Related Party Transactions

a. Policies and Procedures

Describe the company's policies and procedures for the review, approval or ratification, monitoring and recording of related party transactions between and among the company and its parent, joint ventures, subsidiaries, associates, affiliates, substantial stockholders, officers and directors, including their spouses, children and dependent siblings and parents and of interlocking director relationships of members of the Board.

Describe the Audit Committee's responsibility relative to the external auditor.

The Audit Committee has the following responsibilities relative to the external auditor:

- (i) Recommend nominees for external auditors;
- (ii) Perform oversight functions over the Company's internal and external auditors. It should ensure that the internal and external auditors act independently from each other, and that both auditors are given unrestricted access to all records, properties and personnel to enable them to perform their respective audit functions;
- (iii) Prior to the commencement of the audit, discuss with the external auditor the nature, scope and expense of the audit, and ensure proper coordination if more than one audit firm is involved in the activity to secure proper coverage and minimize duplication of efforts;
- (iv) Review the reports submitted by the internal and external auditors;
- (v) Evaluate and determine the non-audit work, if any, of the external auditor, and review periodically the non-audit fees paid to the external auditor in relation to their significance to the total annual income of the external auditor and to the Company's overall consultancy expenses. The Audit Committee shall disallow any non-audit work that will conflict with his duties as an external auditor or may pose a threat to his independence. The non-audit work, if allowed, should be disclosed in the Company's annual report;
- (vi) Establish and identify the reporting line of the internal auditor to enable him to properly fulfil his duties and responsibilities. He shall functionally report directly to the Audit Committee. The Audit Committees shall ensure that, in the performance of the work of the internal auditor, he shall be free from interference by outside parties;
- (vii) Review and evaluation, on an annual basis (at the minimum), of the performance of the external auditors (including lead partner) and recommend to the Board of Directors the appointment of the external auditor;
- (viii) Review the external auditor's proposed audit scope and approach;
- (ix) On a regular basis, meet separately with the external auditors to discuss any matters that the committee or auditors believe should be discussed separately.

Risk Exposure	Risk Management Policy	Objective
N/A
N/A

As of the moment, there is no Group risk management policy in place.

(c) Minority Shareholders

Indicate the principal risk of the exercise of controlling shareholders' voting power.

Risk to Minority Shareholders
The principal risk of the exercise of controlling shareholders' voting power to minority shareholders is that the minority shareholders will not be able to vote against matters voted upon by controlling shareholders. Despite this, the Company ensures that all matters to be decided upon by the shareholders are discussed during a stockholders' meeting and any objections on such matters by any shareholder are heard.

3) Control System Set Up

(a) Company

Briefly describe the control systems set up to assess, manage and control the main issue/s faced by the company:

Risk Exposure	Risk Assessment (Monitoring and Measurement Process)	Risk Management and Control (Structures, Procedures, Actions Taken)
Credit and liquidity risks	Assessment and monitoring are conducted initially by the Company's officers. These are then discussed with Management and the Board if necessary.	To reduce credit risks, the Company concentrates its main cash activities with a bank that has good financial ratings. Also the utilization of credit limits with the bank is regularly monitored. To manage liquidity risk, the Company maintains sufficient liquid assets to meet its maturing obligations and to meet current operating requirements.
Legal risks	Assessment and monitoring are conducted initially by the Company's officers. These are then discussed with external counsels and other advisors, and with Management and the Board if necessary.	Company officers regularly consult with external counsels and other advisors to manage and control perceived legal risks. Directors also have direct access to external counsel, so they can prepare and get appropriate advice before corporate actions are taken.

(b) Group

Briefly describe the control systems set up to assess, manage and control the main issue/s faced by the company:

See responses under item (a) above.

Risk Exposure	Risk Assessment (Monitoring and Measurement Process)	Risk Management and Control (Structures, Procedures, Actions Taken)

N/A

The Company does not have a special committee or body specifically in charge of laying down and supervising its control mechanisms. Control policies and procedures are set by the Board of Directors following consultations with Management and external advisors.

G. INTERNAL AUDIT AND CONTROL

1) Internal Control System

Disclose the following information pertaining to the internal control system of the company:

- Explain how the internal control system is defined for the company;
- A statement that the directors have reviewed the effectiveness of the internal control system and whether they consider them effective and adequate;
- Period covered by the review;
- How often internal controls are reviewed and the directors' criteria for assessing the effectiveness of the internal control system; and
- Where no review was conducted during the year, an explanation why not.

The Audit Committee carries out the following duties in relation to the Company's Internal Control:

- Monitor and evaluate the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's internal control system, including financial reporting control and information technology security;
- Understanding the scope of external auditor's review of internal controls over financial reporting and review of report on significant findings and recommendations, together with Management's responses;
- Adopt a suitable internal control framework (such as COSO-Internal Control Integrated Framework and Control Objectives for information and related technology);
- Monitor, oversee, and evaluate the duties and responsibilities of management, the internal auditor and the external auditor as those duties and responsibilities relate to the organization's processes for controlling its operations;
- Determine all major issues reported by internal auditor, external auditor and other outside advisors have been satisfactorily resolved;
- Reporting to the Board of Directors all important matters pertaining to the organization's control processes.

The directors have reviewed the effectiveness of the internal control system and consider them effective and adequate for purposes of the Company. The Board reviews the effectiveness of the internal control system at least on a yearly basis.

2) Internal Audit

(a) Role, Scope and Internal Audit Function

Give a general description of the role, scope of internal audit work and other details of the internal audit function.

The Audit Committee has the following functions in relation to the Internal Audit of the Company:

- Perform oversight functions over the Company's internal and external auditors. It should ensure that the internal and external auditors act independently from each other, and that both auditors are given unrestricted access to all records, properties and personnel to enable them to perform their respective audit functions;
- The Audit Committee shall ensure that, in performance of the work of the internal auditor, he shall be free from interference by outside parties;
- Review and approve the annual internal audit plan to ensure its conformity with the objectives of the Company. The plan shall include the audit scope, resources and budget necessary to implement it
- Review with Management of the charter, activities and the organizational structure of the internal audit function;
- Review of significant findings and Management's response including timetable for implementation to correct weaknesses; and any difficulties encountered by the auditors in the course of their audit (such as restrictions on the scope or access to information);
- Provide support to the internal audit function and provide high level follow up of audit recommendations when such action is needed;
- Review of the effectiveness of internal audit function, including compliance with the Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing;
- Confirm the appointment, replacement, or dismissal of the head of internal audit function;
- At least once a year, review the performance of the head of internal audit function and concur with annual compensation and salary adjustment;
- On a regular basis, meet separately with the head of the internal audit function to discuss any matter that the committee or internal audit believes should be discussed privately.

1. While the head of internal audit reports directly to the Board of Directors and to the President , they also have a clear line of responsibility to the Audit Committee, through regular scheduling of meetings.
2. Since the Audit Committee conducts the performance evaluation of the internal audit function, the Audit Committee should participate in the appointment, promotion or dismissal of the head of the Internal Audit, and should not be made by management alone.
3. The Audit Committee is also responsible for the review of the coverage of the internal and external auditors to determine that each function complement each other:
 - a) The external auditor is responsible for auditing and attesting to the Company's financial statements, and in certain circumstances, management's assessment of internal control over financial reporting.
 - b) The internal auditor is responsible in monitoring the performance of the Company's internal controls
 - c) The external auditor identifies the internal audit activities that are relevant to planning the external audit.
4. The Audit Committee sees to it that the above audit functions are coordinated and communicated effectively with one another.
5. The Audit Committee stays up to date on the scope and results of internal audit's operations and management's responses to its recommendations and that the internal audit's objectivity and independence of judgment is periodically evaluated.
6. The Audit Committee has put in place safeguards to ensure that the independence of the audit is not compromised. Such safeguards include:
 - a) Seeking confirmation that the auditor in their professional judgment is independent of the Company

- b) Obtaining from the external auditor an account of all relationships between the auditors and the company
- c) Monitoring the number of former employees of the external auditor currently employed in senior positions in the Company and assessing whether those appointments impair the auditor's judgment or independence
- d) Considering the various relationships between the company and the external auditor impair the auditor's judgment or independence
- e) Prohibiting the performance of services where the auditor:
 - may be required to audit their own work
 - participate in activities that would normally be undertaken by management
 - are remunerated through a "success fee" structure, where success is dependent on the audit

(h) State the officers (preferably the Chairman and the CEO) who will have to attest to the company's full compliance with the SEC Code of Corporate Governance. Such confirmation must state that all directors, officers and employees of the company have been given proper instruction on their respective duties as mandated by the Code and that internal mechanisms are in place to ensure that compliance.
